

Dear Brother Tom:

Oct. 2006

I have been asking God to give me a clean heart all these days. I have been very blessed to know from Andrew Murray about the Covenants of God. I am so blessed right now for I have discovered that I have tried all these years to live a holy life through my power but that is the reason why I have been falling in sin so many times. I should have told God before that I am not able to keep myself, and that He must put His new heart into me in order to keep his commandment. I cried and went to the very bottom of my self helpless and asked God to intervene with His plan.

I am telling the truth, nothing but the truth that God has delivered me so deeply that I am now living my life in the cross; dead and risen with Christ, so I am not relying on my own power any more but on that of Jesus to keep me from sinning.

I am so grateful to God for having led me to your website. Holiness is the best place where we can be in God.

Yours Sincerely;
Dritan Zmali

The next day Dritan added:

I am so surprised, for I never knew such a state of being could exist. I mean it is Jesus almighty who keeps me. I feel as if I am born again once more. I have been struggling with sin in my Christian walk for 12 years, but now there is no more struggle. May Jesus bless you forever!

Dritan, mentions Andrew Murray's "Two Covenants" as one of his favorites.

The Two Covenants

This is absolutely the best study of God's Covenants that I know of.

"My one great desire has been to ask Christians whether they are really seeking to find out what exactly God wants them to be, and is willing to make them. It is only as they wait, "that the mind of the Lord may be showed them," that their faith can ever truly see, or accept, or enjoy what God calls "His salvation." As long as we expect God to do for us what we ask or think, we limit Him. When we believe that as high as the heavens are above the earth, His thoughts are above our thoughts, and wait on Him as God to do unto us according to His Word, as He means it, we shall be prepared to live the truly supernatural, heavenly life the Holy Spirit can work in us the true Christ life.

May God lead every reader into the secret of His presence, and " show him His Covenant." 51 pages by Andrew Murray -some testimonies are included.

Please note: this article was witten before Asuza Street, and so uses the term "Baptism in the Holy ghost as a synonym with sanctification and entering His Rest.

It is to be found on the "Precious Treasures" sub-page on the "Entry Directions" page.

He was also especially blessed by this story on our "charismata" page:

Twice Endued

Smith Wigglesworth tells of when he was endued with entire sanctification and years later when he is again endued- but this time with the newly re-discovered Pentecostal blessing of His Spirit. In today's deficient version of Pentecost, only very rare souls have yet embraced both the supernatural purity and the supernatural power that make up the completed Baptism. For this reason, we must pay very close attention to these few exemplars we have for what a Christian was originally created to be. (of course, not all who enter this place will have Smith's remarkable gift of healing) -a 4 page excerpt from the book "Smith Wigglesworth Apostle of Faith' by Stanley Frodsham -with my comments included. Earnest Seeker
